

Electronic Access to Court Documents: Where and by Whom?

* Any documents protected by law or by court order that are not open to the public cannot be viewed by the public online and can only be viewed in person at the clerk's office where the file is located by those authorized by law or court order to see them.*

Location	Civil: 2004 – 2009	Civil: 2010 – 2013	Civil/Housing 2014 – Small Claims 2017 –	Family 2014 –
Public Internet Access	Court orders and judicial notices that are electronic are viewable.  Electronic orders display as links on the case detail page. Notices are found by selecting the Notices tab at the top of that page.		Documents, court orders and judicial notices in electronic civil cases (return date on or after 1/1/14) and electronic small claims cases (filed in or transferred to a JD or housing session location on or after 9/1/17 are available publicly over the Internet. 	Documents, court orders and judicial notices in family cases are not available publicly over the Internet.
Public Access Computers in the Courthouse	Documents, court orders and judicial notices that are electronic are viewable.  If a document is not electronic, its name will display in black type (rather than in blue with an underline).	All documents, court orders and judicial notices are viewable if there is an  in front of the docket number at the top of the case detail page. **
Remote Access through E-Services	Documents, court orders and judicial notices can be viewed by a logged-in appearing self-represented party with electronic access to the case and a logged-in appearing attorney if there is an  in front of the docket number at the top of the case detail page.			Documents, court orders and judicial notices can be viewed by a logged-in appearing self-represented party with electronic access to the case and a logged-in appearing attorney if there is an  in front of the docket number at the top of the case detail page. Note: A financial affidavit that is sealed upon filing is viewable.